

Is Santa Real?

By: Jessica Abbott

You've come to an age
Where you just want to ask,
Is Santa real?
And get an answer that's true.

And though my heart breaks,
For we think of you as forever young,
Here is the truth...
It's hard to explain.

Is Santa real?
Well yes.
But let me explain.

Santa is magic,
He's more than a man.
Santa's a feeling
Of home, love, and family.

He once was a man,
Who lived in 300 AD.
Hailed Saint Nicholas,
For helping people in need.

He left money in homes,
Assisted the needy and sick,
He even helped 3 sisters
Stay out of debt.

He died in 343 AD,
He was a man after all,
Just like you and me.

So when you ask me
Is Santa's real?
I'll tell you the truth.

Santa was real,

And he lives on in you.

Even though I'm the one
Putting presents under the tree,
Santa was a man.
He was just like you and me.

The rest is all magic,
Make believe and fun.
To make little kids eyes
Sparkle like the sun.

But now here is the truth,
The true reason for the season.
The reason it's called CHRISTmas,
The reason I believe in.

Christ is what we really celebrate,
On that early Christmas morn.
The day that our cherished
Savior was born.

His gift is eternal,
One that never dies.
Unlike Santa,
Christ's life gives rise.

He was born as a babe
To a woman named Mary,
Under a star oh so bright
It made King Herod wary.

The wise men adored Him,
The angels they sang,
The shepherds all came
To see their Saviour in the hay.

Christ's life opened heaven
To all who believe,
And though he died on the cross
His Spirit and body are free.

He beat the grave,

He conquered sin,
He gave His life
So that all could enter in.

Adults and children who believe
Have faith til we're gone,
Knowing we will spend eternity with Him
When this world passes on.

None would be lost
For those who believe,
In the Saviour's birth
Which we receive.

So take it from me,
Yes Santa was real.
But more importantly,
It's Christ.

His love is eternal.

Nothing can be added to it,
And nothing taken away.
Just come as you are,
To His cradle in the hay.

We bow down before Him,
Singing of His glory.
And thank God, oh God,
For His miraculous Son's birth story.

So now it's your turn,
My precious child,
To help others believe.
In the joy that is Christ,
On His birthday Eve.

Yes Santa was real,
And he's a whole lot of fun.
But Christ is the reason
We live on and on.
